

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

It's All Happening Right Now at Heritage Square!

Phoenix, AZ (April 15, 2021) We are excited to announce not one but two big pieces of news about Heritage Square:

- First, we are hosting our new Heritage Artisans' Market on Sunday, April 25th, from 9am to 1pm under the shade of our Lath Pavilion. This socially-distanced vendor fair is a fun, family friendly and safe way to get out of your house, enjoy the beauty of this local landmark, and support small businesses in our community. Our vendor lineup includes food vendors, vintage fashion, organic skincare, jewelry, original art and decor, and so much more! Masks are required.
- And second, after being open just three out of the last thirteen months, we are happy to announce the reopening of Rosson House Museum at Heritage Square on Friday, May 7th, right in time to visit the Museum for Mothers' Day! Rosson House will be open Friday-Saturday 10am to 5pm, and Sunday 12pm to 5pm for tours on the hour and the last tour at 4pm. Up to six people will be able to tour at a time, with social-distancing enforced and masks required. Our Visitor Center and exhibit gallery with The Great Migration: Indiscernibles in Arizona on display will be reopening to the public as well. The Bungalow museum store will be open to museum guests only. Museum tickets will be available at heritagesquarephx.org on April 30th.

We are so thrilled to be able to welcome our community back to Heritage Square in person, and can't wait to see everyone again soon!
